

Membership Meeting Agenda

November 13th, 2015

Monmouth County Agriculture Building – 6:30

6:30-7:30 - Sweet Treats made with Honey. Thank you to everyone who brought in a dessert Made with Honey. Everything was delicious and greatly appreciated!

7:30pm – Kelly Gill from the Xerces Society gave a very interesting talk about Pollinator Conservation.

Following Kelly – Executive Board Elections for 2016 and a short business meeting

President/Second VP – Gene Armstrong standing in for Patronio Zalemea

- There will be a Candle Making Workshop on Sunday November 15th at 1pm at Armstrong Tree Service. Please contact Pete Cheney if interested.
- The Winter Party is scheduled for Sunday January 17th at The American Hotel in Freehold.

Elections

- Len Klinker did a great job explaining the election process and how the club came up with the proposed and approved slate which is as follows

President – Gene Armstrong

1st VP – Sal Bernardo

2nd VP – Geff Vitale

3rd VP – Bill Malloy

Treasurer – Curtis Crowell

Secretary – Susan Brandauer

Additional updates/reports:

Treasure – Curtis Crowell – there is currently $9176.79 in the club account

50/50 Drawing

Door Prizes – Thank you Walt for the door prize donation!

Thank you for attending!