

Membership Meeting Notes

September 18th 2015

Monmouth County Agriculture Building – 6:30

6:30-7:00 Light refreshments 50/50 ticket sales

7:00pm – Welcome Lindsey Carroll ! Lindsey is interning with Mary Kosenski spoke about her beekeeping experiences

Following Lindsey - Geff gave a demonstration of the Bee Health App for Smartphones. He Encouraged members to let him know if they would like a review or demo of any other type of Beekeeping related app.

Welcome new members!

President's report –

- Petronio Zalamea spoke about EAS July 25-29th Stockton University, Galloway.
- NJ, Grant Stiles and his new Mann Lake business.
- He advised the membership of Ray Pogwist's mention of a business that will rent equipment that will make foundation out of your own beeswax.
- There was also a a mention of the upcoming nominations for the annual elections for the 2016 executive board. Anyone wishing to run for a position please contact Len Klinker

First VP report – Sal Bernardo introduced himself to the membership explaining his roll with the club

Second VP report – Gene Armstrong

- Monmouth County Fair report – The Fair did very well this year and expecting a record high for profit. Curtis will have the numbers by the next meeting.
- Workshop 9/20/15 Hive I – This was replaced by the bee tree demonstration on Sunday Aug 30th. The Next workshop will be held October 25th on weighing hives, installing mouse guards

Third VP report – Bill Malloy offered suggestion for food at the meeting and welcomed suggestions.

Secretary's report –

- Buckfast Queens – There was a fair amount of interest with the membership so we will look further into the possibility of a joint group order with No.Jersey club through Frank Mortimer with the queens from Ferguson's in Canada next season. Susan advised membership to contact her if they have a request to be sent out to the membership.

Treasurer's report – Curtis Crowell $8439.00 in the bank.

50/50 and Door Prizes

Thank you for attending!